

Weekly Report 28

Akshay Thontakudi, Varun Lahoti, Gerardo Molina
April 12, 2019

PROGRESS

This week the team spent time in the lab 3D printing the bottom and top portions of the clamp, and the cannula holder. The team put the pieces together, with the help of some super glue and have left the prototype to dry/set. In the meanwhile, the group has continued to work on the final report after dividing up the sections between the group members.